Meet the Mayor and the Minister

Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CaLD) community members, cultural groups, community leaders and local agencies are invited to meet the City of Gosnells Mayor and the Minister for Citizenship and Multicultural Interests.

Monday 25 June
5.30pm – 7.30pm

City of Gosnells Civic Centre
2120 Albany Highway, Gosnells

This free event provides an opportunity for community members to:

- Speak with your local and State representatives about the issues important to you
- Register for one-on-one consultations with the City of Gosnells and the Office of Multicultural Interests (OMI) to discuss matters relevant to your community
- Refreshments and a light halal and vegetarian-friendly supper will be provided

Free parking at the City of Gosnells Civic Centre.

This is a free event, however registration is essential. To reserve your place, please call the City of Gosnells on 9391 6022 or email community@gosnells.wa.gov.au by Monday 18 June.

Glenn Dewhurst
Mayor

Mayor Dewhurst has been a member of Council for nine years, and Mayor since 2017. He is a local business proprietor, former police officer, founder of the Black Cockatoo Preservation Society of Australia (Kaarakin) and a board member of three not-for-profit organisations.

Mayor Dewhurst is passionate about the local community and proud of its cultural diversity, as well as the opportunities and benefits multiculturalism brings to the City. He is committed to engaging with the CaLD community to improve services and work together to maintain a welcoming community.

Paul Papalia
CSC, MLA

In March 2017, Mr Papalia was appointed as Minister for Tourism, Racing and Gaming, Small Business, Defence Issues, Citizenship and Multicultural Interests in the McGowan Government.

Over the past 12 months Mr Papalia has focused on the delivery of the State Government's pledge to create jobs for Western Australians and diversify our economy by increasing interstate and international visitors. With WA's thriving multicultural society being one of our greatest strengths, Mr Papalia is committed to engaging with diverse communities and assisting them to achieve their highest potential in contributing to WA's development.
